How to use this guide

Enjoying God

You and I were made for worshipping God. This worship is incomplete, though, unless it is done through Jesus Christ. Through Him we can be restored to a relationship with God. The result will be that we find our highest happiness in worshipping Him.

Worship is not something that is a Sunday-only thing. Worship is something for everyday. This booklet is written to help you in your private, daily worship of God. The benefits to your own life—greater spiritual sensitivity, renewed sense of inner peace, sense of more power—and to your family life will be tremendous.

Enjoying God's Word

We can't go too far into the topic of personal worship without bumping into God's Word, The Bible. It is The Bible that informs our worship, gives us the knowledge of the God we worship, encourages us, inspires us, convicts us, challenges us, and changes us.

The Apostle Paul told the Christians in the church at Colossae, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly" (Col. 3:16). What he is getting at is that you and I must be bathed, immersed in The Bible. But more than that, for our worship to be complete, all of our study must begin and end with Jesus Christ. Reading the Bible without seeing Jesus Christ behind every statement, promise, challenge, is inadequate. If there is a promise it is made because of Jesus; if there is a challenge, it is given to us through Jesus Christ. We have to learn to read The Bible through the eyes of Jesus Christ. It is in that that you'll get the most benefit.

Congratulations! You made it through this 2 year reading plan!

There is something very life-changing about delving deep into God's Word. We trust that you have had many moments of personal insight, conviction leading to change, joy, and hope as you have followed this plan.

Continue to spend time in God's Word. We recommend using this plan all over again .

Our desire at Hope Church Presbyterian is that you become more and more in love with God, and more and more in love with all He stand for.

God bless you!

This booklet contains a plan for reading through The Bible over a two year period. There are advantages to a systematic approach to reading the Bible, but don't feel like this is the only way to proceed.

What does private worship look like?

There are no "hard and fast" rules. The following is a suggestion. It is taken from Psalm 92. Spend some time reflecting on Psalm 92 before you finish reading this booklet.

1. Begin your time of worship by saying THANKS to God.

"It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to your name, O Most High; to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night." (Psalm 92.1-2)

If you want to, you may write out a brief prayer that you can say each time you begin.

2. Consider singing some song, or reading some poem that focuses on God's love and faithfulness.

"At the works of your hands I sing for joy." (Psalm 92.4)

3. Read the passages for today, from this booklet.

"How great are your works, O LORD! Your thoughts are very deep!" (Psalm 92.6)

- a. Work on getting the truth out of these passages. You might simply focus on one passage each day. Your aim is to find out what this passage means.

3. Read the passages for today, from this booklet. “How great are your works, O LORD! Your thoughts are very deep!” (Psalm 92.6)
- a. Work on getting the truth out of these passages. You might simply focus on one passage each day. Your aim is to find out what this passage means.
- What does it tell me about God?
  - Do I see his love? Truth? Power? Holiness?
  - Does it explain anything about Christianity?
  - Are there any promises? Challenges?
- b. Work on making personal connections with this passage. This is moving from knowing about the passage, to applying it to your heart and life. Your aim is to make this passage personal.
- How can I praise him for this?
  - How can I humble myself because of this?
  - If this passage says this, what difference will this make in my life today and tomorrow?
  - What wrong behavior, false attitude, harmful emotions arise when I forget this passage?
  - What do I need to do or become in light of this?
4. Finish by delighting in and relishing the God who wrote out these words for you.
- “He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.” (Psalm 92.15)*
- a. Move from understanding the passages to cherishing them. Your aim is to taste that God and Christ are extremely good!
- Praise him for things you have learned
  - Confess any sins you have realized
  - Pray that he becomes more dear to you, and that you make the changes that he calls for.

Listen to one pastor and commentator as he describes our time of personal worship.

“First comes the actual exercise of the mind, fixing thoughts and meditations on spiritual truths...Next comes the inclination of all the affections toward these things, whereby they cleave to spiritual truths and make an engagement to them [that is, promise to live by them]...Finally comes a relish and a savor in which lies the sweetness...of the spiritual life. We taste then by experience that God is gracious, and that the love of Christ is better than wine...” (John Owen)

May God bless your worship of him, and may you grow in your own Christian living this next year!
